1.0 Purpose

This policy aims to provide all Titan Rail employees with a clear framework for how Titan Rail manages a Fair & Just Culture.

Titan Rail is committed to proactively managing all enterprise risks that can cause harm to our staff, contractors, visitors, and customers. We are committed to ensuring that we protect our operational and occupational safety, security, environment, customer service and organisational reputation and brand to the highest reasonable standard.

2.0 Scope

This Fair and Just Culture Policy Statement applies to all workers associated with Titan Contracting Group.

3.0 Review Process

The current Company Fair and Just Culture Policy are shown on page 2.

This Policy will be reviewed every two years by the Titan Contracting Group Directors and approved, signed, and dated by both Co-Directors.

Once approved, this Policy will be communicated to all workers and relevant interested parties of Titan Contracting Group.

Fair & Just Culture Policy Statement

At Titan Contracting Group we believe:

We recognise that the organisation is accountable for the design, management and continuous improvement of the systems that manage risk and that our staff are accountable for the quality of their choices and the management of risk when working within these systems.

Titan Rail commits to:

- Recognising, rewarding, and promoting commendable behaviour
- Designing safe, reliable systems to manage our risks
- Ensuring our staff are appropriately trained, educated, and aware of our risks and how we must manage them to ensure success
- Proactively seeking new or improved ways to manage our risks, through collaboration with our staff and H&S Representatives.
- Creating an environment in which we have honest and open discussions about safety, recognising both organisational and individual accountabilities so that staff can speak about safety and operational issues without fear of negative consequences
- Actively listening to and supporting staff who raise concerns regarding our systems, processes, equipment, training, or management of risk, with Zero Harm as our collective goal
- Investigating risks and occurrences in a transparent, fair, and consistent manner to ensure we identify system contributions and human behaviours using the Just and Fair Culture System and Behaviours Response Guide
- Implementing appropriate strategies to mitigate known or reported risks in the constant pursuit of the prevention of harm
- Ensuring the Health and Safety Team are advised of incident investigations and involved in reviewing the investigation reports and any proposed safety actions
- Identifying and removing incentives for risk-taking behaviour and, consistently, and regularly communicating our priorities in the management of risk
- Supporting our staff who have made human errors, and coaching those who have drifted into risk-taking behaviour
- Responding promptly with discipline to behaviours that seek to purposefully or knowingly harm, or recklessly increase the risk to Titan Rail contractors, our staff, or customers
- Managing the risks appropriately where individuals have made repetitive errors or at-risk choices, with consideration of both the individual and organisational requirements.

Titan Rail staff are accountable for:

- Managing their individual behaviour, fitness for duty and conduct to ensure risks are appropriately managed and quality choices are made in the delivery of service and the prevention of harm
- Supporting others to manage risk through peer coaching and constant risk awareness

Fair & Just Culture Policy Statement

- Reporting all instances where safety or performance levels have been compromised or risks are identified
